Mid Carolinas

Tres Dias

Bringing Christians
Closer To Christ

What is Tres Dias?

Tres Dias is Spanish for "three days". Tres Dias is a three-day Christian renewal experience with people from various denominations supporting one another in our Christian walk. Tres Dias is a laity-led experience with ordained pastor support and is not affiliated with any particular Christian church or denomination.

Many who have attended a Tres Dias Weekend have experienced a deeper and more meaningful relationship with Christ as they sense His love in a dynamic way.

After your Tres Dias Weekend, you can continue to enjoy the spirit of the Weekend by joining in monthly covered-dish Tres Dias gatherings.

Purpose of Tres Dias

The purpose of Tres Dias is to bring people into a closer walk with our Lord and to develop leaders for the local church.

One strength of Tres Dias is that we draw from different denominations. This enables Christians from all churches to learn from each other and to share in our mutual love of our Lord Jesus Christ.

About Mid Carolina Tres Dias

Mid Carolinas Tres Dias (MCTD) is the local Tres Dias Community. It was started in 1990 and operates under Tres Dias International. Mid Carolinas is one of 87 Tres Dias communities around the world.

Mid Carolinas Tres Dias is located in the Charlotte, NC region and serves both North and South Carolina. Over 1200 people from many churches and denominations in the North and South Carolina area have attended a Mid Carolinas Tres Dias Weekend.

Mid Carolinas Tres Dias is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

The Weekend

Mid Carolinas Tres Dias Weekends are held at Camp Bethelwoods Camp & Conference Center located in York, SC which is south of Charlotte.

The Weekend begins Thursday evening and ends late afternoon on Sunday. During the Weekend, participants are encouraged to reflect upon their walk with Christ. There are speakers who share their own experiences and speak about topics such as God's grace, Christian action, leadership, the church and living a life of grace.

There will be small group interaction, singing, Holy Communion, lots of food, fellowship and more. The atmosphere of Tres Dias is one of love, acceptance, Christian friendship, heartfelt praise and fun.

The Weekend is "cloistered" which means that it is time away from all the cares of the outside world including phones, computers and other technology. This allows you to focus on the Lord and your own life.

Who Attends?

Christians aged 21 and up from many churches and denominations attend Tres Dias Weekends. There are new Christians as well as those who have been walking with the Lord for many years. The participants will be of all ages, races and backgrounds, but we are all one in Christ. Regardless of where you are in your Christian life, the Tres Dias Weekend will enrich your walk and enhance your relationship with Jesus Christ.

Mid Carolinas Tres Dias weekends are staffed by volunteer lay people and ordained clergy who all serve on these weekends out of love and to the glory of God.

Is There a Cost to Attend?

Mid Carolinas pays for all lodging, meals and supplies for all who attend the weekends at an approximate cost per person of $180.

Tax-deductible donations received from the community and Weekend participants are the only means of support to pay for the Weekends. We ask participants to assist with donations to help cover the expenses as they are able.
