Mid Carolinas

Tres Dias

Bringing Christians
Closer To Christ

What is Tres Dias?

Tres Dias is Spanish for "three days". Tres Dias is a three-day Christian renewal experience with people from various denominations supporting one another in our Christian walk. Tres Dias is a laity-led experience with ordained pastor support and is not affiliated with any particular Christian church or denomination.

Many who have attended a Tres Dias Weekend have experienced a deeper and more meaningful relationship with Christ as they sense His love in a dynamic way.

After your Tres Dias Weekend, you can continue to enjoy the spirit of the Weekend by joining in monthly covered-dish Tres Dias gatherings.

Purpose of Tres Dias

The purpose of Tres Dias is to bring people into a closer walk with our Lord and to develop leaders for the local church.

One strength of Tres Dias is that we draw from different denominations. This enables Christians from all churches to learn from each other and to share in our mutual love of our Lord Jesus Christ.

About Mid Carolina Tres Dias

Mid-Carolinas Tres Dias (MCTD) is the local Tres Dias Community. It was started in 1990 and operates under Tres Dias International. Mid-Carolinas is one of over 100 Tres Dias communities around the world.

Mid-Carolinas Tres Dias is located in the Charlotte, NC region and serves both North and South Carolina. Over 1300 people from many churches and denominations in the North and South Carolina area have attended a Mid-Carolinas Tres Dias Weekend.

Mid-Carolinas Tres Dias is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

The Weekend

Mid-Carolinas Tres Dias Weekends are held at Camp Walter Johnson located in Denton, NC which is between Greensboro and Charlotte NC.

The Weekend begins Thursday evening and ends late afternoon on Sunday. During the Weekend, participants are encouraged to reflect upon their walk with Christ. There are speakers who share their own experiences and speak about topics such as God's grace, Christian action, the church, Christian leadership, overcoming challenges, and living a life of grace.

There will be small group interaction, singing, communion, lots of food, fellowship and so much more. The atmosphere of Tres Dias is one of love, acceptance, Christian friendship, heartfelt praise and fun.

The Weekend is "cloistered" which means that it is time away from all the cares and busyness of the outside world including phones, computers and other technology. This allows you to fully focus on and grow in your relationship with the Lord without any distractions.

Who Attends?

Christians aged 21 and up from many churches and denominations attend Tres Dias Weekends each weekend. The participants are of all ages, races, and backgrounds, but we are all one in Christ. The Tres Dias Weekend will enrich your walk and enhance your relationship with Jesus Christ whether you are a new Christian or have walked with the Lord for numerous years.

Mid-Carolinas Tres Dias weekends are staffed by volunteer lay people and ordained clergy who have previously made a Tres Dias or similar weekend. The volunteers consider it an honor and privilege to be able to serve and share Christ's Love as they experienced it on their initial weekend. But most of all, they serve for and to God's Glory not their own.

Is There a Cost to Attend?

MCTD pays for all lodging, meals and supplies for all who attend the weekends at an approximate cost per person of $250.

Tax-deductible donations received from the community and Weekend participants are the only means of support to pay for the Weekends. We encourage folks to assist with donations to help cover the expenses as much as they are able. We do not request that candidates donate unless they desire to "pay it forward".
